TURNER APPOINTED TO STATE BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY

GREELEY, Colo.(2007-12-06 00:00:00.0)GREELEY, Colo. (Dec. 6, 2007) – Colorado Governor Bill Ritter has appointed Dr. Karen Turner, assistant professor of accounting at the University of Northern Colorado’s Monfort College of Business, to a four-year term on the Colorado State Board of Accountancy.

The board regulates the certified public accounting profession in Colorado. Among the board’s duties are identifying, examining, and licensing qualified practitioners, and identifying and licensing qualified public accounting firms.

Turner has been at the Monfort College of Business since 2004, teaching accounting courses including intermediate accounting, accounting theory and research, and fraud examination. She has taught at Texas A&M University, Baylor University, Valdosta State in Georgia and most recently at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor where she was chair of the Department of Accounting, Economics & Finance. She is a licensed CPA in Colorado and Texas.

About the Monfort College of Business

The Kenneth W. Monfort College of Business at the University of Northern Colorado focuses exclusively on excellence in undergraduate business education. This unique focus has led to national and international recognition for the College including becoming the first and only business program to receive the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award from the Office of the President of the United States, and the only undergraduate-only program worldwide to be accredited by AACSB International in both business and accounting. Over four successive years Monfort’s graduating seniors have scored in the top 10 percent on nationwide standardized exit exams. Students earn a degree in Business Administration with emphasis options in accounting, computer information systems, finance, general business, management, or marketing. For more information, visit Monfort’s Web site at mcb.unco.edu.
